Hay Fever, Asthma and Summer Colds

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfarm St., Chicago, writes, "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience. Willman & Martin.

MAKE THE BEST OF IT.

A merry heart, a merry laugh.
A fact with lots of sun in it.
A merry tongue with merry chaff.
And quip with lots of fun in it!

If trouble comes, and trouble will,
When others make a guest of it,
Keep on a smiling face and still Strive to make the best of it.

And if the worst comes to the worst,
And life has no more zest in it,
Well, there are fewer clouds to burst,
So why not make the best of it?

Then learn to leave behind you care,
A fool but walks abreast of it.
Don't be a victim to despair.
But always make the best of it!

—La Touche Hancock in New York Sun.

NEW GIRL EASIER.

Myrtle—Have Maude and Harry had a quarrel?

Maude—Not exactly a quarrel; he decided that it was easier to get a new girl than to buy her a birthday present.

Quitting Time.

He wouldn't watch the clock—
Not one in sight, you know;
But often listened long
To hear the whistle blow.

Crafty Wooer.

"How did Smiggles win Mrs. Willjums over to giving her consent to his marrying her daughter?" asks the young man with the large pipe.

"Met the old lady in the dark hallway and kissed her, then apologized, saying he was sure she was the daughter," explains the young man with the excited socks.—Judge.

Up to Date.

Assistant—Great Scott! This next issue of ours is going to be simply rank. It'll never sell a copy.

Editor—Brace up! There's one thing left to do: Summon the advertising manager and we'll fake up a scheme to boom the thing as some kind of a "special number."—Puck.

A Bond of Sympathy.

Tramp (to lady of the house)—Is that your husband going down the street?

Lady—Yes.
Tramp—I know then that you will not be insensible to some slight bond between us when I tell you that I asked that man for a dime.

Flora M'Flimsey.

"Need a new dress? Thought you got a new dress less than a month ago?"

"Now, John, you know that dress hasn't been made yet."

Not the Type.

"I hear you were very much disappointed in your mother-in-law."

"Completely so."
"In what way?"
"Why, she's simply perfect!"

IN THE MATRIMONIAL RACE.

"What chance do you think Mabel has to win that young man that's calling on her?"

"Well, I understand she's on the first lap."

Doing Time, Maybe.

A chap who had one mate at home
And took another wife,
Has lately ceased the world to roam
And leads an indoor life.

Rough Going.

She—A man never loses anything by being polite.

He—Oh, yes, he does! I gave up my seat in a crowded car to a lady and within five minutes I lost my equilibrium.—Yonkers Statesman.

A Contradiction.

"How could that be a head-on collision?"

"Why not?"
"Didn't the accounts say the engineer lost his head?"

Didn't Like Any of It.

She—Now that you have looked over my music, what would you like to have me play?

He—Whist or dominoes.

Need of Ideals.

Mankind always needs ideals which loom so large in the sight of men that they cannot fail to see them clearly. More than ever is this true of today, for the turmoil and the hurry of modern life raise a great dust which ofentimes hides the skies. Enthusiasm, dreams, hopes are to be encouraged, and belong to youth, which ever renews itself in warm hearts, although reason is needed to cool and guide them. The fact that we believe that our ideal is beautiful and holy is not ground for forcing it on our mates. To win success a man must not be a pure idealist, else in practical things he will fail, but he must have ideals, and he must obey them.—Atlantic.

Loss of Time means Loss of Pay

Kidney trouble and the ills it breeds means lost time and lost pay to many a working man. M. Balent, 1214 Little Penna St., Streator, Ill., was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that he could not work, but he says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills for only a short time and got entirely well and was soon able to go back to work, and am feeling well and healthier than before." Willman & Martin.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, despair, and the despondency endured by women because of derangements of the delicate and important organs of the female system. The tortures so bravely endured, and the nerves if long continued, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG
SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes the nerves. It tones and builds up the system, and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers will have nothing to urge upon you as "just as Ask Your Neighbors." They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Holzhaus paid a visit to Mr. Adolph Holzhaus and family at Elmendorf last Sunday, returning Monday.
Rudolph Mueller, our little shoemaker,
moved to the Ihnken house last Monday.
Jos. Zinsmeyer of Bandera County was a Castroville business visitor the forepart of the week.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brieden on Tuesday, Aug. 5th, a daughter; and to Mr. and Mrs. Phil. A. Scherrer of Sauz on Thursday, Aug. 10th, a son.
A cloth partition in the residence of Mr. Aug. Mangold Sr. caught fire Tuesday afternoon. The flames had almost reached the roof when discovered by Geo. Mangold who, after a strenuous effort, succeeded in extinguishing
the flames and avoiding the destruction of their home. The young man sustained painful burns to his right hand.
The origin of the fire is not known.
R. J. Noonan, our County Attorney, was here on business Tuesday and again on Friday, returning to Hondo
Saturday.
R. T. Milnes (Alamo Dick) was here
Wednesday talking Alamo Beer to our Saloon men.
Messrs. Louis J. Mangold and Joe Naegelin Jr. returned Wednesday from a several days outing at Jno. B. Spettel's Ranch in Bandera County. They report that country in fine shape with plenty of watermelons, roasting ears
and lots of other good things to eat and drink.

Attack Like Tigers.
In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs
like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome.
Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T.
Budshn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health.
Try them. 50c at W. H. Windrow's.

Perfected Eyeglasses.
Eyeglasses for those who are near sighted cut crescent shaped have been common for a long time. A yachtsman appeared recently with a pair of eyeglasses crescent shaped, but for those who are far sighted. They are just the reverse of the reading glasses.
When wanting to see a distance the wearer looks through the glasses and when reading he looks under them.

A King Who Left Home
set the world to talking, but Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he always KEEPS AT HOME the King of all Laxatives—Dr. King's New Life Pills—and that they're a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only 25c at W. H. Windrow's.

His Youthful Ideal.
First Hobo—"Strange how few of our youthful dreams come true, ain't it?" Second Hobo—"Oh, I don't know; I remember how I once yearned to wear long pants. Now I guess I wear them longer than any man in the country."

Sallow complexion comes from bilious impurities in the blood and the fault lies with the liver and bowels—they are torpid. The medicine that gives results in such cases is HERBINE. It is a fine liver stimulant and bowel regulator. Price 50c. Sold by W. H.
Windrow.

Three Celebrations.
A young couple were married the other day at Draguignan, France, on the same day that the girl's parents celebrated their silver and the bridegroom's parents their golden wedding.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can,
as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. Alfred Naegelin of Bear Creek came in Friday with a load of hogs for which he found a ready market and realized good prices.
Mr. Jos. Villemain and family of Pipe Creek visited friends in our midst
Saturday.
Some of our young folks attended the dances at Riomedina and Lacoste Saturday night.
A number from here attended the Quill Gun Club prize shoot Sunday.
A light shower, enough to lay the dust for a day or two, fell here Sunday afternoon.
Mr. Robert L. FitzSimon and Miss Theodora FitzSimon were happily married early this (Monday) morning at St. Louis church, Rev. Father Heck-mann officiating. The attendants were Mr. Lawrence FitzSimon, brother of the bride and Miss Elsie Schott of San Antonio. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the hospitable home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Jno. T. FitzSimon, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken, whereupon the young couple left for Lacoste to board the east bound train
on a bridal tour to Hot Springs, Ark.
We join the many friends of the happy young couple in wishing them bon voyage.
F. Kilhorn Jr. of Hondo was here during the past week and assisted his father in putting up a three thousand gallon tank for Henry Tschirhart.

Thirty Years Together.
Thirty years of association—think of
it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worth-lessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos.
Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry
it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth.
Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hayfever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs.
Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free.
Guaranteed by W. H. Windrow's.

Clever.
"I wish," said the slight and elegant
Mrs. Fitzbob to her friend Mrs.
Tigg, whose embonpoint was strikingly handsome, "I wish I had some of your fat and you had some of my lean." "I'll tell you what is the origin of that wish," replied the fair wit, "you think too much of me, and too little of yourself."

Seemed to Give Him a New Stomach.
"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M.
Youngpeters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health."
For sale by all dealers.

Beyond Cavi.
A man dropped his wig in the street and a boy who was following close behind picked it up and handed it to him. "Thanks, my boy," said the man. "You're the first genuine hair restorer I have ever seen."—Minneapolis Journal.

What is Best for Indigestion?
Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquin, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.
Price, 25 cents. Samples free at all dealers.

astronomers adopted the present

ciated from the lunar and solar cycles.

The Water Problem

Water is one of the most abundant and essential elements of nature and the life and happiness of the people and the success of all lines of industry depend upon quality, cost and durability of our water supply.

Ever since the days when Moses smote the rocks and water gushed forth to quench the thirst of the children of Israel, the people have murmured for water. In time of drouth it is the custom of the people of the rural districts to pray for rain and of the inhabitants of cities to curse
the waterworks. Irrigation is solving the problem in agriculture in the arid regions of the state and pure artesian
water is available for most cities.
Nature has done her part by deposit-ing vast lakes of pure water beneath the surface and numerous rivers traverse the state, offering an abundance of surface water to the cities and it is merely an engineering problem of watering the cities of Texas.

A permanent source of water is one of the most important questions confronting many growing cities in the state and one which may be, by common consent postponed but it can-not's cheat. It will rise up again with increased pertinacity.

Solve the water problem and solve
it now.

Good Roads.
Properly planned and built roads as commerce follows the flag and no
community has advanced far in civilization that has not improved its public highways. The condition of the public road and the commodities
handled usually gauge the progress and development of communities. Get in line and build good roads.

Texas Needs Capital.
Texas cannot be developed with home capital and if this generation purposes to develop the state, we must get men and money from the outside,
and an invitation to homeseekers and capitalists is cordially extended.

Peevish Children.
Children are retarded in growth,
held back in school, become peevish,
nervous and fretful all because of some stomach disturbances. Look after your children's bowels. Do not allow them to become constipated. See that they digest their food properly. Then they will look well and feel well. To regulate the stomach and bowels and cure these disturbances, give them Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as specially prescribed for children. It is absolutely guaranteed to do what is claimed,
and if you want to try it before buying,
send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all dealers at 50c and $1 a bottle.

Where the Blind Ride Free.
Blind people are now permitted to ride free on the street cars of Glasgow, Scotland. The local town council has distributed a supply of brass tokens among the various institutions for aiding the blind, and an ordinary car ticket is given in exchange when a token is presented by a blind person desiring a free ride.—Popular Mechanics.

Accused Of Stealing.
E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve
of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles.
"It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains
and injuries of their terror," he says,
"as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c at W. H. Windrow's.

Had Grown Out of It.
Middle-aged graduates of an academy in Auburn, Me., were discussing school days, says the Chicago Post.
"What became of that red-headed boy who was so afraid of the girls?"
asked one. "He has just been divorced from his fourth wife," said
the graduate who had kept up with the times.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Sun Magic.
 The mist wreaths curled and swirled o'er
 the crests of the lilac hedges,
 And the apple boughs were blown and
 the cherry branches tossed;
 And the roses seemed to grudge to open
 their crimson pledges,
 And the silvery lances of rain slanted,
 and then were lost.

The very visage of grief—tremulous, tearful, tragic;
 Niobe's look of woe—sorrow without alley!
 When, lo! a rift in the clouds, the glamour
 of gold sun magic,
 And all the garden shone with the radiant face of joy!

COTTON is coming in rapidly
 now and present indications are it will all soon be marketed. The time for making a fall crop is now past and as soon as the crop is gathered the plants should be destroyed, either by pasturing or cultivation. It will save the soil useless deterioration and destroy the few boll weevils that may have survived the long drouth.

Hondo, :- Texas.

THE Anvil Herald has often called attention to the feasibility of damming the numerous canyons that can be found among the hills of Southwest Texas and utilizing the storm waters stored
 therein for purposes of irrigation.
 We have seen this done on a small scale and know that it is practicable. The big irrigation project on the Medina and that out near Marfa, known as the St.
 Stephens Land and Irrigation
 Co., will bring this plan into more general notice and we expect to see many such enterprises
 launched in the next few years.
 In some places, there are canyons small enough for one man to carry out the project alone. In other places, a co-operative association of the land owners might enable them to carry it out on a larger scale. At any rate, the era of irrigation from surface tanks in Southwest Texas has arrived, and we expect to see it
 do great things for the country.

THE Dry Farming Congress
 meets next Wednesday, August 23rd, at Uvalde in the third annual session. A very instructive program has been arranged and a delightful time socially is planned. All of our citizens who can should attend. They will learn many things that it is important to know. Then, too, those who are there want to know what you know about successful dry farming. If you have been successful in growing crops or if you have any plan whereby you have ever been more successful in growing crops than your neighbor you will be a benefactor if you impart this knowledge to the Congress that others may profit by your experience. Some one has truthfully said: "My candle is none the less bright for having lit that of my brother".

It seems to us that if ever people needed anything to convince them of the intolerance of the average prohibitionist and of the danger to the liberties of the people that lurk in the propaganda
 of their leaders they have it now
 in that one-sided inquisition now being held in Austin. With nothing in the world to gain save a possible political advantage, the state is being compelled to bear the expense of an inquiry being conducted by partisans for partizans of the prohibition cause. If it does not act as a boomerang to its instigators we mistake the temper of the people of Texas.

No Governor of Texas has ever filled that responsible position under more trying conditions than is Governor Colquitt. With two branches of the executive department and the entire legislative branch of the state against him,
 his position is indeed a trying
 one. Yet, despite it all, Colquitt is making good and his friends—
 his real friends—are stronger for him than ever. They will stay with him through thick and thin and do whatever lies within their power to see that little Oscar is given a square deal.

To Applicants for Teachers' Examinations.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 15.—The State Department of Education today announced that there will be an examination at each county seat in Texas on August 31 and September 1 and 2 for teachers' certificates, at which will be offered questions for State permanent,
 State permanent primary, State first-grade and State second-grade certificates, and also county second-grade certificates. This will be the first county examination held under the new certificate law and the county board of examiners is not authorized to grade any of the papers for State certificates, but is required to grade only the papers for county second-grade certificates. County superintendents should, therefore, give notice of this examination through the county newspapers so that those persons who desire to take the examination August 31 and September 1 and 2 may have due notice thereof.

The above was published in the press
 despatches after Prof. Saathoff's article on second page had been printed.
 He authorizes us to say that he will be prepared to give any one desiring it an examination in the permanent grade branches if they will apply to him at 9 o'clock a. m., August 31st.

Have You Heard Bro. Harbord?

He is conducting services at the Christian church. If not, why not?
 If you haven't, you don't know what you are missing. Come and hear him;
 it will do you good.
 The attendance has been good, for which we are grateful and the prospects for a successful meeting are good. We need your prayers and hearty co-operation and support.
 Bro. Harbord was called back to San Antonio Wednesday to perform a marriage ceremony for one of the young ladies of his congregation and,

 in his absence, it fell to Bro. Henry Hagemeier to preach in his stead.

Bro. Harbord is back with us again,
 and his whole soul and spirit is in the work. Come out and get acquainted with him; it will do you good. To know him is to love him.
 The services will continue throughout next week with preaching every night.

An Easy Business.

The easiest business in this world is dry-goods; the reason is; customers want the stuff as much as they want to sell it; they come-in; look at the goods and buy. That's the whole business.

Devoe comes next. It saves money, and people like money. They like somebody else's more than their own;
 they like to make it more than to save it; they like to keep it perhaps as well as to make it.
 Buildings run-down fast, without paint; poor paint is the same. Devoe is the means of stopping that leak; a big one. All we've got to do, to sell Devoe, is to show that a man saves money by using it. E. D. Jewell, Corry, Pa., painted his house 5 years ago with a mixed paint; 14 gallons.
 Last spring he painted Devoe; 10 gallons. Saved $15 to $20.

Arrangements have been made between the business men on Front Street and the Deep Well Co. for the placing of six fire-plugs on the more exposed corners along that street. The pipe will be four inch pipe and each plug will be provided with two openings for a two and a half inch hose. This will give that section of town much better fire protection and should be a means of reducing the present exorbitant insurance rate.

WHERE ART WAS AT FAULT

House Maid Has Trouble With Picture of Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Among the engravings that adorned the walls of a Toledo woman's home was one big one of the leaning tower of Pisa. One morning, shortly after the advent of a new maid, the mistress of the house noticed that the picture of the tower hung crooked. She straightened it and said nothing of the matter to the new servant, who had evidently shifted it while dusting. The next day the picture was again crooked; the same thing happened the next day and the next. Finally, one morning, chancing to be in the room where the picture was, the mistress said to the maid as she dusted:

"Mary, you've hung that picture of the tower crooked. Just look at it!" "That's what I say, mum," returned the domestic, "look at it! The only way I can get that blamed tower to hang straight is to hang the picture crooked."—Lippincott's.

From Heidenreichstein, Germany.

"I am a user of Hunt's Lightning oil and think it an excellent remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, and like ailments, and am always glad to recommend it. FRANZ GRUBER, Heidenreichstein, Germany.

Fastening Battery Wires.

There are two ways of doing almost everything, and this is especially true of fastening battery and cell terminal wires. One way is wrong, and the other is to twist the bare end of the wire around the terminal as the hands of the clock move, and then tighten up the nut. The reason for this is because the screw-thread is right-handed, therefore the tendency of the tightening nut will be to twist the wire around the terminal tighter than it was. Should the wire be twisted the other way, the nut would tend to untwist it and it would slip under the nut and very likely get a very poor hold.

Report from Constantinople, Turkey.

I have been using your Hunt's Lightning Oil for some time and I think it the best remedy I have ever used for catarrh, bruises and burns. I have used it with great advantage for rheumatism and neuralgia. I especially recommend it for all suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia and troubles of that sort.

HE KEPT CHICKENS

It was Vantine who laid the trail of powder and applied the match. He did it last April when McQueen was explaining for the fiftieth time that the country place he had just purchased over in Michigan was without exception the greatest bargain and the prettiest spot on earth.

"You are going to keep chickens, of course?" suggested Vantine, in the tone which demands an affirmative answer.

"Why," said McQueen, who up to that minute hadn't thought anything about it at all, "why, yes, of course! We'll have our own fresh eggs. Of course, I am going to have the finest poultry yard in the state! Chickens! Well, I should say so!"

Before he moved his family over to the new home in May McQueen had invited everybody he knew to drop in any time during the summer for a week-end. Everybody was most deeply interested in McQueen's chicken yard, which he had been busy to see about as yet. It seemed to him that his friends took a malicious delight in slapping him on the back and spreading the news.

"Hello!" they would say, jovially. "Poring over catalogues, I suppose, picking out your chickens and stuff? Why, didn't you know, Chester, that McQueen, here, has a huge chicken farm over in Michigan? Aw, you're just modest, McQueen—you know you have! Fresh eggs at every meal!"

In the face of all this McQueen was in nervously desperate straits when he landed with two friends in the country in June, and his wife, in response to his frantic inquiries, placidly said the chickens had come—at least, six hens had. No there weren't any eggs yet. Then she was startled to see her husband turn pale and apparently have some sort of a fit.

"But," he got out, finally, "Chester and Vantine haven't done a thing all the way across the lake but talk about the fresh eggs they are going to have and the fried chicken dinner I am to set up Sunday! Why, those hens have got to lay—"

"Now, Henry!" said his wife, awake at last to the emergency, "they'll never know the difference! I got real nice eggs from the grocer who sends a wagon around, and I've no doubt he can sell chickens, too!"

"Well, for goodness' sake, don't let the fellows know they're not from our place!" gasped McQueen, in agonized relief.

He explained the apparent paucity of hens to his friends by saying that he had sent back a lot that weren't satisfactory, and then he gave color to his fiction about his chicken yard by giving the man of all work lavish orders as to placing chicken wire.

McQueen, still nervous from his narrow escape resolved when he got back to town to buy and ship all the available live poultry, so he might breathe in peace. Vantine and Chester went back shouting praises of their chicken dinner and their breakfast omelets. Then the rush began. So many friends wanted to drop over to Michigan with McQueen that it looked as though he would have to issue checks.

"Fresh eggs and real home-grown chickens sounds good to us," they would say, plaintively.

McQueen neglected his business hunting up material for his fatal chicken yard. He tried artfully to talk the virtues of lake bass and butcher's meat and breakfast bacon, while his hens were so busy getting acquainted with their new home that they did not attend to their duties, but everybody put up protesting hands.

"What!" they would exclaim. "No fish, no bacon for us. We came over here especially for fresh eggs and friend chicken! No steak, thank you."

So the McQueens squandered untold gold on the grocery boy and scored the countryside for eggs. All of McQueen's week-ends resolved themselves into nightmares of showing determined guests about his chicken yard. He never got time to go anywhere else. All of Mrs. McQueen's midweeks were devoted to hunting up a fresh supply of eggs and chickens to feed to the week-end crowd. She couldn't have any of their own chickens killed, because they were supposed to lay eggs.

By fall McQueen had bought ten different kinds of food warranted to make hens lay and none of which did; had invested in six different brands of chickens, each warranted better than the last, none of which were; had spent a fortune on day labor and rolls of chicken wire and carpenters for the henhouse and paid so much money for eggs and frollers that his blood curdled to his toes when his wife showed him the bill.

"I kept count," she said. "We had just 30 eggs of our own all summer long from 250 hens. Now, what are you going to do with them this winter, when we go back to Chicago?"

"Do with them!" exclaimed McQueen. "I'm going to poison the lot, or else sell them to some greenhorn, who is fool enough to think he wants a chicken yard! And, Angelina McQueen, if you serve chicken in any form to me during the next six months or bring a soft-boiled egg within gunshot of me, I'll not be answerable for the consequences! I'm a desperate man!"

"You needn't worry," said his wife. "I'm kind of tired of chickens, myself."

INDUSTRY THRIVES

ILLICIT WHISKY MAKING IN ALABAMA INCREASED WHEN "DRY" LAWS PASSED.

Federal Revenue Officers Find It Difficult to Suppress Moonshining.

Birmingham, Ala.—The prohibition law in Alabama increased the illicit distilling industry so greatly that J. O. Thompson, internal revenue collector for Alabama and Mississippi, has asked the government for an increase of deputies to cope with the situation.

During the past year, the deputies in these two states have made over four hundred arrests for moonshining and have destroyed nearly one thousand stills. The industry is growing in spite of the government's activity in trying to stamp it out, and Collector Thompson says that, without the state's aid, the moonshine business never can be suppressed. A bill to give state aid to the government in stamping out moonshining was killed in the past session of the Alabama legislature.

Reasons For Moonshining.

There are three reasons why the ignorant moonshiner will continue to make and sell whisky. First, the profit from the sale of illicitly made whisky is enormous. Secondly, there is a fascination about the business which appeals to mountaineer and lowlander alike arising from the combination of danger and the pitting of the wits of the moonshiner against those of the revenue deputies. Thirdly, the moonshiner can see no moral wrong in making whisky from grain the earth produces, and selling it for a living.

Moonshiners make profits averaging as high as $100 a day. A still was destroyed in the mountains of Alabama recently which cost $50. It was turning out seventy gallons of whisky a day when it was captured, and the product of the still sold for $2 a gallon and was disposed of as soon as made. A still called "the pan and snake" costs $6. It will average five bushels of corn a day and will earn about $25.

Ideal For Distiller.

Winston, Lawrence, Blount, Jackson, Marshall, DeKalb, Walker and other mountain counties are the corn whisky producing centers of the state. In the lowlands a product is made from syrup scrapings. The geography of the mountain sections of Alabama is peculiarly adapted to the business. Revenue officers know well the danger that may lurk behind rocks and in the deep defiles and dark hollows of these silent regions.

The moonshiner is very much the same in looks as the farmer of his region. Usually he is alert and shrewd and suspicious of strangers. He is the soul of hospitality to the stranger whom he knows is not meddling; but the stranger must walk straight, talk openly and be able to give a good account of himself, his business and his mission in the mountains. The mountaineer has a hundred ways of sending messages. He is confirmed in his ways; he will brook no outside interference and he is prepared to defend himself and what he believes to be his rights.

Made "Dew" 30 Years.

In the mountains of Alabama there is a hoary-haired member of the tribe who has been making "mountain dew" for thirty years or more. More than a thousand nights he has stood guard in the lonely hills, resting on his rifle and ready at the slightest sound to send the warning to his fellow moonshiners. He grows wrathful when he speaks of the government's attitude toward moonshining.

"Corn is usually worth somewhere around fifty cents a bushel," the old man says. "It is a long way to the market and frequently we can't sell it when we reach there. By running it into whisky we provide a ready market for our corn. Good corn whisky brings about $1.50 a gallon, so we get about $6 a bushel if we sell it that way."

"We raise most of the corn manufactured into whisky and feel that we have a moral right to prepare it for the market in the most profitable way. We concede that the revenue officers have a right to arrest us, but we do not believe they have a right to destroy and confiscate our property. It is this destruction of property that has caused moonshiners to become such bitter enemies of the revenue officers."

He threw his long range repeater over his shoulder and disappeared among the heights, while a shout heard from a distant hill and three taps of a farm bell in reply from a neighboring valley told that all was well.

"DRYS" TRY TO FORCE LARGE NUMBER OF SALOONS ON TOWN

Flint, Mich.—Out of spite because this city went "wet" in a recent election, the "drys" are trying to increase the number of saloons from 30 to 35, declaring that if 30 saloons are good for the city, 35 will be better. The effort to increase the number of saloons is being bitterly opposed by the liquor men who are trying to regulate and control the traffic throughout Michigan.

"On disclosure of the fact that twenty million gallons of whisky annually are shipped into 'dry' states, one is moved to inquire into the appropriateness of the arid adjective."—Baltimore Evening Sun.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

Who Was There That You Knew?

In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there a father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States at that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $50,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there now. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked down pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—President Cartfield and General Sherman P. Butler said it was worth $250,000—yet with the help of the Kennerly or Kennerly, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

World's Best Ear of Corn for 1910

Rev. W. W. Nunn tells an interesting story that will interest chicken fanciers every where. The hens were laying under his barn and an effort was made to shut them out. Shortly after they had been shut out the peeping of young chickens was heard and an examination disclosed five of the fluffy little orphans under the barn. A further examination disclosed about twenty-five eggs scattered around. These were gathered together and left in the straw under the barn and soon nine more chicks made their appearance. Thus a brood of fourteen chicks were hatched from about thirty eggs with no brooding save what little the hens gave them while laying under the barn and the natural heat of the weather. The little orphans are thriving and will soon be large enough to fry.

Don't Poison Yourself With Mercury

That's What You May Do If You Take Calomel, Because Calomel is a form of Mercury.

If you ask a druggist for bi-chloride of mercury, he will give it to you in a red label bottle marked POISON. Calomel is also a chloride of mercury, as your doctor will tell you, and, as everybody knows, mercury is a poison.

When you think you need a dose of calomel, instead of whipping your liver up with the mercury it contains, go to W. H. Windrow's drug store and pay fifty cents for a bottle of Dodson's Liver-Tone, a pure vegetable liquid that starts the liver to action just as surely as calomel does and is perfectly mild and harmless, with no bad after-effects. No restriction of habit or diet is necessary.

Dodson's Liver-Tone gives such perfect satisfaction in curing constipation and torpid liver that W. H. Windrow will give the money back to any person who tries it and does not find it a perfect substitute for calomel.

New Fountain Notes.

BY NARRATOR.

ED. ANVIL HERALD:—Despite the drouth, our burg has been growing in population since my last letter to the Anvil Herald, as two little baby girls have made their debut in our midst, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Saathoff on Thursday, July 27, and the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Muennink on Monday, July 31st.

Louis A. Gerdes attended St. Dominic's festival at D'Hanis Monday, the seventh, and reports having had a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Balzen and Mrs. Otto Neumann and children returned last week from Atascosa county where they had been on a visit to their daughter and sister, Mrs. Emil Reitzer.

Henry Senne and Hubert Zinsmeister of Brackett were here visiting relatives and friends for a few days last week.

Miss Lydia Winkler returned to San Antonio last Thursday after visiting relatives and friends here for some time.

Miss Lina Grell is at home again, after a lengthy stay at Hondo.

The picnic given at the Quibi Gun Club grounds last Sunday was one of the largest attended picnics ever given at that place. People from all over the county were present, and the hospitable people of the club left nothing undone to please the public. The Biry Military Band furnished good music during the day. Plenty of beer, barbecued meat, bread and pickles were served. In the afternoon, the young folks and lovers of sport went out to see a matched game of base ball between the Castroville Blues and the Sturm Hill players, in which the latter were defeated by a score of 9 to 4. As well as I could ascertain the supposed prize shoot between the different clubs for the county championship did not come off as expected, though a prize shoot of five picked men on each side of the Biry and Quibi Clubs took place, in which the Quibi Club was victorious. A dance at night closed the event of the day, for which the Manns' band furnished good music.

Ferd. Bless and Henry F. Poehler of Brackett and ex-members of the Quibi Gun Club, arrived here last week on a visit to relatives and to participate in the club's festival.

John Hartmann and Willie J. Saathoff shipped a car of fat cattle to the San Antonio market the first of the week.

Miss Hulda Helmke returned last Saturday from San Antonio where she had been visiting relatives for a couple of weeks.

Miss Maude Allen, Hondo's "hello girl", spent the latter part of last week with Miss Lina Hartmann.

Oscar Saathoff was out from San Antonio last Sunday for the picnic and dance.

The first sounds of thunder for a long time were heard all day yesterday and ended with a high wind in the evening but the rain is still lacking.

Messrs. F. D. Muennink, Henry Buss Sr. and Hugo Mumme returned yesterday from Galveston where they had been sight-seeing for the past few days.

A dance at Vandenberg Saturday night on Saathoff's platform will no doubt close the week's happiness.

August 16th.

J. D. Burgin has been admitted to a partnership in the Hondo Land Co. and is ready for business. With H. B. Taylor and Mr. Burgin to look after the field work and Fletcher Davis looking after the advertising department, this company is exceptionally equipped to handle a real estate business. If you have lands for sale or if you are looking for a farm, ranch or town property see or write to some member of the company.

TEACHING A LESSON.

As the car swung sharply around from Shaker street not a man arose to offer his seat to the handsomely gowned woman who was clinging desperately to one of the straps. Whereupon Mrs. Kyckers, who was sitting next to her husband, exclaimed, indignantly, "I think it is just shameful for all you men to stay seated and make that poor woman stand!"

Mr. Kyckers was not impressed. "Do you know who that woman is?" he asked.

"No," his wife retorted, "I don't know who she is; and it doesn't make any difference who she is; she's a woman, and ought to be treated with decency."

Mr. Kyckers spoke patiently, "My dear," he said, "she is the wife of the trolley company's president."

Settling George.

"No, George," she said in her gravest tones, "I cannot become engaged to you, and I am very sorry to see you show this mad infatuation. Remember that I am much older than you are, and believe me when I say I will always be an older sister to you."

"You ain't hardly any older than me," declared the disappointed youth.

"I am 15, George, while you are but 14. And remember, George, that to a woman a year is a lifetime."

Indifferent.

"What was Constable Miggs doin' up on th' stage durin' the entertainment?"

"Th' dum'd ol' idiot was insistin' that Jim Peters should have his Santa Claus whiskers fireproofed."

"What did Jim say?"

"He said he'd worn 'em thirty year without fireproofin' an' he didn't care a dern whether they burned or not!"

How He Felt.

Miss Gusher (to aeroplane passenger)—It must have been splendid riding around up there. Didn't you feel as though you owned all the world beneath you?

Timid Passenger—Well, I certainly had an idea that I was a great deal better off.

HOPEFUL.

"I understand your wife has joined the suffragettes?"

"Yes, and I'm glad of it."

"Then you approve of the suffragettes?"

"No. One of these days they'll do something that Marie disapproves of and then she'll give them the talking to that they deserve."

Quite Flashy.

It seems he's had a run of luck. His bank account is fat. And on his head is proudly stuck A fuzzy-wuzzy hat.

The Worm Turns.

"Every man I refused to marry has accumulated a fortune, and here you are as poor as when we started life together."

"Poorer, dear."

"Well, I'd like to know why it is?"

"You didn't refuse to marry me, dear."

A Mean Man.

"Mrs. Flubb is going to give a poodle party."

"I wish I could furnish the refreshments."

"What would you suggest?"

"Arsenic."

Well Qualified.

"A man who has lived for 20 years in the same boarding house is going to enter vaudeville."

"What sort of specialty will he do?"

"Oh, I guess he'll imitate a prune."

Contrary Qualifications.

"Queer, isn't it?"

"What is queer?"

"That a man may be out of the running because he has not the proper standing."

An Easy Mark.

"Why do you think you failed to find the North Pole?"

"Because I found a magazine that would pay me well for the story of my failure."

We Aim to Please.

Old Lady (who has come aboard during heavy rain)—How nice of these railroad folks to have a clothline up. I'll just hang my shawl up to dry.—Judge.

No Walk at All.

"What is your friend's walk in life?"

"He hasn't any. He makes air ships."
